Web.com Extends Service Offerings to the UK Through Reseller Agreement With Scoot

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 8, 2013 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Web.com Group, Inc., (Nasdaq:WWW) a leading provider of Internet services and online marketing solutions for small businesses, has signed an authorized reseller agreement with Scoot, a leading local search company in the United Kingdom, to provide a full range of its website services to Scoot customers. Under a multi-year agreement, Web.com will offer Scoot customers domain registration, hosting, website design, mobile websites and more.

"We are delighted that Scoot customers will have the opportunity to benefit from our extensive experience and proven track record in creating effective online solutions for small businesses," said David Brown, president, chairman and chief executive officer of Web.com. "Over the years, we've introduced a wide-range of offerings that helps level the playing field for small businesses when they compete with larger companies online, and we look forward to extending that expertise into the UK with the highly-regarded Scoot network."

Scoot is the first participant in the recently launched Web.com Authorized Reseller Program and will begin to offer Web.com's services in October 2013.

"Crafting this partnership with Web.com is another step forward for Scoot as we strive to be a one-stop-shop for our customers," said Mark Livingstone, chief executive officer of Scoot. "We are committed to offering our customers best-in-class products and services to meet their specific needs, and with Web.com's product set and know-how, we have found the perfect companion provider for our global suite of leading online directories."
