Donald Trump to Address Miami Area Small Business Owners at Web.com's Small Business Summit

The Small Business Summit Will be Held on March 5th During the World Golf Championships - Cadillac Championship at Trump National Doral Golf Club

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 27, 2014 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- World renowned business magnate, Donald Trump, will offer his business views to Miami area small business owners at the Web.com Small Business Summit on March 5, 2014 during the World Golf Championships - Cadillac Championship. The Small Business Summit will run from 2:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. EST at Trump National Doral Golf Club in Miami. Web.com (Nasdaq:WWW) developed the Small Business Summit as a benefit to small business owners in communities across the country. Mr. Trump will speak for approximately 30 minutes at the close of the Small Business Summit.

"Web.com is delighted to give Miami area small business owners the opportunity to hear a speaker of the caliber of Donald Trump at our Small Business Summit," said David L. Brown, chairman, chief executive officer and president of Web.com. "Every day, Web.com helps millions of business owners address the challenges of building and maintaining an effective web presence that helps their businesses grow and Donald Trump will undoubtedly share some sage business advice to our audience."

Topics and content at the Small Business Summit focus on ways small business owners can achieve a successful Internet presence, including the elements of a great website, how to determine if their website is working for them, increasing traffic to their website and business, mobile marketing and decoding how to efficiently market their business on Google, Facebook and Twitter.
