Web.com Invites Raleigh Area Small Business Owners to be Its VIP Guests at Rex Hospital Open

Web.com to Host Exclusive VIP Event for Raleigh, N.C., Area Small Businesses

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 19, 2014 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Web.com (Nasdaq:WWW), a leading provider of Internet services and online marketing solutions for small businesses, invites small business owners in the Raleigh area to join as VIP guests at the upcoming Web.com Tour Rex Hospital Open. This exclusive VIP event will take place on Saturday, May 24, 2014, at the TPC Wakefield Plantation Golf Club in Raleigh, N.C., from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Web.com will provide local business owners free tickets to attend the golf tournament with full access to the private Web.com hospitality venue and amenities. Through Web.com's agreement with the PGA TOUR and as umbrella sponsor of the Web.com Tour, Web.com has developed a series of events to benefit small business owners in communities across the country.

"In the Raleigh area, small businesses are the engine that drives the growth of our local economy and are essential to our area's overall success," said Carson Gilbert, Tournament Director for the Rex Hospital Open. "Staying competitive in today's ever-changing business environment is very important to small business owners and they must find better ways to drive the success of their enterprises. With the help of our corporate partners, such as Web.com, the PGA TOUR is pleased to help small business owners continue to grow and prosper."

This VIP event for small business owners includes:

- Two tournament passes for admission
- An exclusive opportunity to meet and greet Tour players
- Free optional online consulting from Web.com Ambassadors to help optimize the small business's website, Facebook Page or online marketing efforts.
- Food, beverages, contests, networking and more

"As the umbrella sponsor of the Web.com Tour, Web.com has made a strong commitment to give back to the communities we serve. We are pleased to offer this exclusive VIP event, which is focused on celebrating the efforts put forth by the country's small business owners," said Michael Young, vice president for Small Business Summits at Web.com. "Our mission is simple, to help the millions of small business owners address the challenges they face as they build a successful online presence."

About the Web.com Tour

Founded (1990), owned and operated by the PGA TOUR, the Web.Com Tour continues to identify those players who are ready to compete and win on golf's biggest stage. In an historic 2013 season, the Web.com Tour became the path to the PGA TOUR with all 50 available PGA TOUR cards coming through the Web.com Tour and the season culminating at the four-event Web.com Tour Finals. Web.com became the Tour's umbrella sponsor on June 27, 2012. A 10-year agreement (through 2021) is in place. The Tour enters its 25th year of competition in 2014. Three out of four PGA TOUR members are Web.com Tour alumni. Tour alumni have won 371 PGA TOUR titles, including 18 majors and five PLAYERS Championships. The PGA TOUR, through the efforts of its three tours and their tournaments, sponsors, players and volunteers, supports over 3,000 local charities and is closing in on $2.0 billion in charitable giving.
