Web.com Announces $100 Million Stock Repurchase Authorization

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 5, 2014 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Web.com Group, Inc. (Nasdaq:WWW), a leading provider of Internet services and online marketing solutions for small businesses, today announced that its Board of Directors has authorized the repurchase of up to $100 million of the Company's outstanding common shares.

"Web.com's share repurchase program is in line with our ongoing commitment to use our strong cash flow to enhance shareholder value," stated David L. Brown, chairman, chief executive officer and president of Web.com. "We believe in the significant market opportunity associated with helping small businesses succeed online and will continue to target growth investments as a result. In addition, we believe a stock repurchase plan is an appropriate capital management alternative, along with debt repayment."

The repurchase program will be funded using the Company's available cash balances and future operating cash flows. The timing, price and volume of repurchases will be based on market conditions, restrictions under applicable securities laws and other factors. The repurchase program, which is authorized through December 31, 2016, may be terminated by the Company at any time and does not require the Company to repurchase any specific number of shares.

The repurchases may be made periodically in a variety of ways including open market purchases at prevailing market prices, in privately negotiated transactions, or pursuant to a 10b5-1 plan implemented by the Company.

Any repurchases under this share repurchase program will be disclosed in the Company's future quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and annual reports on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
